To Those I Love
When I am gone, just release me, and let me go.
So I can move into my afterglow.
You mustn't tie me down with your tears,
Let's be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love, you can only guess how much
You gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love each have shown, but now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.
And when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile, and say...

"Welcome Home"

Special Thank You
What-A-Burger Restaurant, Pastor Chris Vara,
Angela Quillian and Mrs. Adrianne Johnson

A love one from us is gone,
A voice we love is still
A place is vacant in our home
Which can never be filled.

Mrs. Veronica Vara was born, April 2, 1975 to Antonio Vara, Jr. and Brenda L. Vara in San Antonio, Texas. She received her formal education in the Public School System of San Antonio.

Veronica went on to join the workforce and was employed by What-A-Burger Restaurant, where she excelled as a store manager. Veronica was a dedicated employee for twenty-one years and was still a vital part of What-A-Burger until her passing.

Veronica met her soul mate, Manuel Angulo and they were united in matrimony. They were a gloriously union and best friends for nine years. Veronica was a loving and devoted wife and mother of five beautiful children. She was a huge Spurs fan and loved to laugh and just have fun. Veronica touched many hearts with joy and was a loving, beautiful ray of sunshine. She was an Angel on this earth with a purpose from God and was loving to those around her.

Veronica had a relationship with the Lord throughout her life and knew that without Him she would not be. God’s beautiful garden needed a beautiful rose, so he called Veronica and she answered the call. She was just the rose God was looking for.

Veronica was preceded in death by her father, Antonio Vara, Jr. She leaves to cherish her memory her husband, Manuel Angulo; three daughters, Samantha (husband, Leonard), Lauren and Natalia; two sons, Jonathan and Matthew; mother, Brenda Vara; brother, Anthony (wife, Jennifer); two sisters, Miriam and her twin, Valerie; her only granddaughter, Genesis and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

The family of Mrs. Veronica Vara expresses the greatest appreciation for all the love and sympathy shown by everyone. Thank you all for the cards, flowers, calls, visits, words of comfort and prayers. May God bless each of you is our prayer.
